Police Stoned and Driven to Seek Shelter

-Company Announces Through the Mayor a Compromise.

BRIGEPORT, Conn., Jan. 21 .- To-day has been one of the most exciting in the history of the city of Bridgeport. Not since 1861, when marching volunteers on their way to the front filled the streets, have the residents been so aroused. All day excited crowds have thronged the streets and mob law has prevailed, the police set at definance, and a crowd of angry men have ruled the town. The rioting was one of the results of the discharge of five of the employes of the Bridgeport Street-railroad Company yesterday and the strike which followed. About one hundred employes of the company stopped work yesterday, completely tying up the road. They held numerous meetings and sent a committee to the managers of the road in an effort to bring about a settlement. In this

This morning fifty men came up from Jersey City to take the places of the strikers, and it was announced that the company intended to run its cars to-day.

The men then held a long consultation and decided that they would not allow the company to run the cars. They concluded however, to give the company another chance for settlement, and sent a committee to the owner and managers of the road. They were denied audience, the managers refusing to meet them as a committee or give reasons for the discharge of the men. They announced they would meet the dissatisfied ones individually, but would not recognize them as an organization. The men withdrew and the strikers held a brief session at which it was decided that they would not return to work and would prevent the company from run-

Meanwhile the company was preparing to start service and at 9 o'clock nine cars were drawn out of the sheds. They were sey, the stable hands and about a dozen of the old men who reported for work. The report that the company was to start cars and that the strikers would try to prevent it, spread rapidly through the city and in a short time all of the strikers and hundreds of sympathizers gathered at the stables on Main street and along the streets through which the road runs. As soon as all of the strikers were informed of the refusal of the owners of the road to arbitrate they proceeded to block the tracks on every street. The yards of the New York, New Haven & Hartford rall-road were raided and rallroad iron, ties, coupling pins, boxes and barrels were taken and piled on the tracks at various points. Some of the cars were moved out of the sheds, and were unable to proceed but a short distance. They were surrounded by the strikers and their friends and the crews were compelled to leave them in Policemen were then summoned from headquarters and several cars were started with three railroad employes and a guard of three policemen. The cowds quickly drove the police from the cars together with the conductors and drivers. Sticks and stones were thrown and the windows of the cars broken. Several policemen and May street, in the vicinity of the stables, was the center of the trouble. Here a crowd of nearly five thousand gathered and encouraged the strikers. The men themselves, indeed, did not take such an active part in it as the young roughs in the crowd. The demonstration became so threatening that an alarm was sent out from police headquarters and all of the officers and specials who could be summoned were brought in. This force was stationed along the tracks at the stables and on the cars. The crowd near the stables and along the road increased in numbers until nearly ten thousand people were in the street. The presence of the police did not deter the mob, and obstructions of all kinds were piled on the tracks as rapidly as they were removed.

At intervals attempts were made to move the cars, and about noon several proceeded

At 2 o'clock a car in charge of five policetacked at the corner of Congress and Main streets. Here a mob of about two thousand men and boys were gathered. They bom-barded the cars with stones, breaking all of the windows and injuring several of those in charge. At Williams street, in East Bridgeport, five hundred men and boys raided the yard of Jones & Hoffman, contractors, and piled lumber, trucks and other obstructions on the tracks. At 3 one car, strongly guarded by police, over the entire line but this was the only one to make the circuit during the day. At 6 o'clock the patrol wagon filled with policemen and three wagons with railroad emploves left the stables to bring back a wrecked car at the corner of Congress and Main streets. On arriving there they were surrounded by a mob and a lively row ensued, in which a hostler employed by the company had his nose broken and employes were badly bruised. The police and railroad men retreated and abandoned the car.

Meanwhile the Mayor summoned the Poice Commissioners, sheriff and city officials and a conference lasting three hours was held with the owners of the road. At the conclusion of the meeting it was announced that the company had agreed to re-employ

NAVAL HEROES' MEMORIAL. Unveiling of the Beautiful Window at the Naval Academy.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 21.-The memory of the American naval heroes who lost their lives in the great storm at Apia in March, 1889, was honored by the unveiling of a beautiful memorial window at the Naval Academy to-day. This is the tribute of the United States Naval Association. Dr. Clark, chaplain of the Naval Academy. delivered a special sermon. Several officers who witnessed the terrible scene involving the loss of so many American and German seamen, were present. The window comes from the studios of the Royal Bavorier establishment of Meyer & Co., in Munich, and was on exhibition at the world's fair, It is lancet shaped, seventeen feet long and four feet wide, and contains three pictures. Two of them portray scenes at Samoa and the third is a scriptural piece illustrative of St. Matthew, viii, 26: "And He saith unto them: why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then He rose and rebuked the winds and sea and there was a great calm. Above and below this biblical illustration are two disks. The upper one is in the spring of the arch and shows a broad expanse of water which reflects the rays of a setting sun struggling through fleets of wind-driven clouds, by which the sky is hidden. On the horizon can be faintly seen the coral reefs. The scene is intended to Bank Vault at Parkville, Mo., Was About to Be Blowed Open.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 21.-Chief of Police Speers received a telegram about 2 o'clock north of here, on the Kansas City, Council Bluffs & St. Joe railroad, saying an attempt had been made to rob the Park Bank at that place shortly after midnight last night. The telegram was signed by A. C. Hamilton, cashier, and A. J. Hamilton, president. It appears that Mr. A. C. Hamilton had spent the evening in Kansas City and returned on a late train. It had been the custom to leave a lighted lamp in the bank all night and on reaching Parkville Mr. Hamilton went to the bank for the purpose of lighting the lamp. On reaching the door, he unlocked it and was about to go in when he heard a noise inside, and quickly retreated, suspicious of possible robbers. He went for assistance and on returning to the bank, a kit of burglar's tools was found in front of the safe and also two sticks of dynamite. A heavy clamp had been placed on the knob of the safe and things looked as if the robbers were just about to force the knob of bers were just about to force the knob off and insert the dynamite when the cashier discovered the plans. Early this morning Alonzo Zane, whose home is in Kansas City, Kan., was arrested as he was crossing the Council Bluffs bridge. He denies all knowledge of the attempted hobbery, but could give no satisfactory account of himself and was locked up. The police are still on the lookout for the other two rob-

GUTHRIE, O. T., Jan. 21.-A dynamite bomb charged with enough dynamite to blow up a block of buildings was found in the office of the town site board yesterday. It was a piece of lead pipe three feet long. A party of newspaper men took the deadly instrument to the suburbs of the town and built a fire over it. It exploded, tearing a hole in the ground big enough to bury a horse, and the shock was felt for miles. It is believed the bomb was intended for Governor Renfro and School Inches with dyspepsia and liver disease Suffered a Sudden Hemorrhage and His Condition Serious.

Colonel Henderson, a Republican Member of the House, Also Stricken and His Life in Great Danger.

PROGRAMME IN THE HOUSE

Tariff Debate Will Conclude with the Speeches This Week.

Elections Bill May Intrude and Consume Some Valuable Time-Income Tax as an Amendment.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.-There are two prominent Congressmen very ill in Washington to-night. They are William L. Wilson, of West Virginia, chairman of the ways and means committee, and author of the tariff bill, and Col. David B. Henderson, of Iowa, one of the most gifted Republican leaders. Mr. Wilson has almost worn himself out on the tariff bill. He is a delicate little man at best, and has kept in his committee room or at work at his desk on the floor of the House, participating in the tariff discussion, when he should have been in bed. He had a hemorrhage of the lungs to-day. He may be in his seat in the House to-morrow-his anxiety for his tariff bill will take him there if he can sit up. However, it is possible that he may have crossed the river and entered the life beyond before the sun rises. His condition is regarded serious to-night.

Colonel Henderson lost a leg below the knee in battle during the late war, and it has greatly troubled him of late years. He has suffered from gangrene and had three amputations. He is just now in great danger from blood poisoning. Colonel Henderson was in his seat in the House during the past week and made one of the most patriotic speeches against the tariff bill uttered thus far. He then went to his room and became ill. His condition is critical, but another amputation may save his life. He is a Scotchman, born on Scotch soil, but an intense American, a gallant man, a useful statesman and one of the wisest Republican leaders. His death would be a great loss to the soldiers.

CROWDED FOR TIME.

House Will Enter on the Last Week of Tariff Debate To-Day.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.-The coming week will see the conclusion of the tariff debate in the House. According to the special order the voting on the bill and pending amendments will begin a week from tomorrow at noon. During the past week no amendments of substantial importance have been voted on with any chance of adoption except that fixing the date on which free wool would go into effect, which was carried by the radical Democrats with the aid of some Republicans over the protest of the Democratic members of the ways and means committee. This coming week, however, will witness the fight over the big amendments to be offered from the Democratic side. The full measure of the Democratic opposition to the bill will then develop, and considerable bad blood will doubtless be manifested. The first fight will come on the sugar schedule to-morrow. Three hours have been set apart for the consideration of the propositions to be offered by the sugar men. Four amendments will be offered to the paragraph placing sugar on the free list, if the present plan be adhered to. The first will be that of Mr. McRae, of Arkansas, to abolish the provision relating to the sugar bounty on the Wilson bill which contemplates its gradual reduction one-quarter of a cent a year for eight years until it be wiped out. To this Mr. Price, of Louisiana, will offer an amendment to substitute in place of a bounty a duty of 1 cent per pound on raw sugar. A substitute for this to retain the McKinley bounty of 2 cents will be offered by Mr. Meyer, of Louisiana, and Mr. Boatner will offer an amendment to the substitute to place a 1½ cent duty on sugars. This will exhaust the amendments that can be pending. The votes will be taken in the strong fight on the ground that sugar is a revenue article and, in accordance with the dictates of the Chicago platform, should be made dutiable to supply the deficit which it is estimated the customs schedules of the Wilson bill will cause. They will have the support of all the Democrats who are opposed to the income tax, including Mr. Cockran, Mr. Wilson and others of the ways and means committee. While it is generally admitted that they will probably be able to muster a majority of the Democrats, the Republicans, who are pledged to the free sugar feature of the McKinley law, will give them their aid. The chances of the adoption of a sugar duty, for the above reasons, are slim. Tuesday has been set apart for the consideration of the amendments to the free coal and free iron ore schedules. The present duty on both of these articles is 75 cents per ton. The coal men, especially of Vir-ginia, West Virginia and Alabama, are at the back of this opposition, and have the support generally of the Democratic Representatives from those States. The iron interest of the South, Alabama and Tennessee, and of the Lake Superior district, including the vessel interests of the lakes. is fighting against free iron ore. Both are willing to yield a portion of the duty, and amendments ranging from 35 to 50 cents per ton will be offered. Raw materials are made the backbone of the Wilson bill, and a herculean effort will be made to prevent defeat here. The Republicans, if they join with the coal and iron men, as they probably will, may make the vote close, but to-day the Democrats of the ways and means committee manifest no alarm.

DEBATE ON ELECTIONS BILL There has now been a positive agreement on the part of Republicans to continue the discussion of the elections bill and to take it up with a view of its final disposition. Many of the Republican Senators have given public assurance that they would not seek to delay the final vote on this bill beyond a reasonable time for debate, and the fact that the Republican caucus took no action looking to deciding on a policy concerning this measure would seem to indicate that no such course will be pursued. On the other hand the continued postponement of the uninterrupted discussion of the subject would seem to indicate that there may be some design of quietly brushing the subject aside by plead-ing for delay until the tariff bill shall reach the Senate and absorb its entire time. It is evident that the Democratic leaders have some apprehension of a policy of this kind, and are determined that if such a purpose be entertained it shall not succeed. They will have a double reason for insisting on proceeding with the elections debate this week, first, that they are quite determined to dispose of the subject before the tariff bill is reached, and, second, that they wish, as far as possible, to divert the speech making in the Senate from the bond question. Hence, it may be reasonably inferred that the programme as agreed to in the Senate on Thursday last with respect to this bill will be observed. Senator Lodge has given formal notice of an intention to speak on the bill on Wednesday, and Senators Hoar, Frye, Chandler, Higgins and Hawley have indicated that they would ask to be heard on the subject before it shall be definitely dis-the strikers with the exception of nine men. Later in the week the internal revenue Persons who will persist in dying by tax be successful, as they claim confidentas a rider, it will cause several Democrats at least to vote against the entire measure. Other amendments relating to the tobacco schedule, lead ore, etc., and other minor amendments the committee may offer will consume the rest of the week. When the vote is taken it is probable that a great number of amendments will have not received consideration. Mr. Richardson, the chairman of the committee on the whole, already has in his possession seventy-seven amendments. There was a meeting this afternoon of the Democratic members of the ways and means committee. Representatives McMillin, Whiting, Tarsney, Turner, Bynum and Bryan were present. Mr. Wilson was detained by illness in his family. The internal revenue tax bill was again considered, but revenue tax bill was again considered, but the meeting was entirely informal and no votes were taken. The bill will be reported to the full committee Monday and to the House probably Tuesday morning. Members of the minority in favor of making the bill a part of the pending tariff bill, say that an altempt will be made soon after the bill is placed on the calendar to have it considered at once as an amendment. This motion will probably be made by Mr. Mc Millin, chairman of the subcommittee which drafted the bill. These plans may be overthrown at any time, either by the be overthrown at any time, either by the action of the Democratic members who are opposed to an income tax and who may vote with the Republicans and defeat the measure in full committee, or by the refusal of Chairman Richardson to recognize the representative of the Democratic minority members when he attempts to have the bill taken from the calendar and con-sidered as an amendment.

THE BOND ISSUE.

The Discussion May Be Precipitated in the Senate To-Day. WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.-The present in dications are that the Senate will divide its attention in the main this week between the federal elections bill and the policy of a bond issue as decided on by the Secretary of the Treasury. Among Democrats who will probably speak upon the bill are Senators Gray and Hill. It will be impossible to keep the bond question entirely out of the Senate and there is a possibility that it may be made the subject of a number of speeches if not of considerable de-bate. Senators Peffer and Allen both have resolutions before the Senate, taking Secretary Carlisle to task for his course, and Mr. Allen has given notice of a speech on Thursday based on his resolution. Mr. Peffer's resolution will come up to-morrow in the morning hour, and it may be the means of precipitating this question the first thing in the week's proceedings. There are also other Senators primed with speeches on the bond issue, so that it will be very surprising if there be not as muc attention given to bonds as to any other subject before the Senate.

OVERWEIGHT BUTTERINE. Armour & Co., of Chicago, Have Lost

25,000 Pounds. WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.-Secretary Carlisle has agreed to compromise a case arising under the internal revenue bureau against Armour & Co., of Chicago. Some time ago, it was ascertained that the company was unknowingly delivering to merchants packages of butterine containing prints which weighed a fraction of an ounce more than a pound, and on which the tax had been paid at so much per pound. As soon as the matter was reported to Armour headquarters their agent was immediately sent to Washington to assist in the investigation. It was admitted that the pound pacages were over weight, but the claim was submitted that it was the fault of the molds. The compromise arrived at is that the company is to pay $115 as taxes on the overweight in the prints estimated to have been sent out, and $2,500 specific penalty for a violation of the law. This is not all the company's loss in the matter, however, for to the above sums must be added the value of the ex-cessive weight of butterine in the packages, which amounted in the aggregate to about 25,750 pounds.

Walthall's Resignation Accepted. JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 21.-Governor Stone's acceptance of United States Senator Walthall's resignation was made public to-day. Congressman Allen's friend, Hon. H. E. Steke, of Aberdeen, who is here looking the field over in Allen's interest, says Allen's friends are not authorized to let his name go before the caucus as a senatorial candiate. They do not know what will happen later. The announcement of Governor Stone seems to have broken

Rear Admiral Belknap Retires. WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.-This is the last day in active service of Rear Admiral George E. Belknap. He retires on Mon-day. He will be succeeded as president of the naval inspection board by Commodore J. Walker.

"AIRY FAIRY" LILLIAN

Wedded in Hoboken on Account of Cruel Laws of New York.

She Is Now Signora Perugini and the Signor Says He Has the Most Charming Bride in the World.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21 .- For the third time in her life the erstwhile "airy fairy" Lillian Russell, before whose shrine have worshiped the "Johnnies" of Gotham and the chappies of America, for the last deccade, stood at the altar of Hymen, to-day, and promised to "love, honor, and obey." her future "lord and master" in the person of John Chatterton, whose nom be theater is Signor Perugini. At 10 o'clock Miss Russell, in company with her mother, Mrs. Cynthia Leonard, her sister, Mrs. Alfred T. Chultz, Mrs. Owen Westwood, Miss Hallie Leonard, and her press agent, "Teddie" Piper, were conveyed across the ferry to the residence of Civil Justice Moller, in Hoboken. Awaiting them were the groom-elect with Mr. Edwin Hoff, of the Bostonians, and Thomas Daiy. Then the marriage was consummated within five minutes. The entire party returned to the bride's home on Seventy-seventh street, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. To-night a dinner was tendered by Signor Perugini and bride, at which were present the bride's mother and sisters, together with Madame Lillian Nordica, Col and Mrs. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hoff, Fred Schwab, and "Teddie" Piper. The bride received many valuable gifts among them being two necklaces of diamonds, a tiara of diamonds and sapphires. a diamond "sunburst," two sets of sterling silver knives and forks, a chest of old silver, a morocco leather traveling bag, with jewel-rings and bracelets. Signor and Signora Perugini will continue their roles at the Casino. "I am going to be married, and, if you call at my little home in West Seventyseventh street in the evening, you shall have a good big slice of the wedding cake," is what Miss Russell said, as she was stepping on the ferryboat. The reason the ceremony had to take place in New Jersey was beause Judge Barrett had refused to sanc-tion the marriage. Justice Barrett announced yesterday that he could not grant Miss Russell the desired permission to marry, that is, in time for the proposed ceremonies, stating that should she marry with-out his permission and in this State the lady would be guilty of bigamy. This was the result of her early marriage with Harry Braham, who secured a divorce from her. The laws of New York prohibit a divorced man or woman from marrying again in the State without a special decree, while the one obtaining the divorce can marry without trouble, Sig. Perugini said: "Terribly painful, you know, to have ancient history raked up. I know that I have won the most charming bride in the world, and I This week will be the last of thepresent

WANT THE COLD CASH

Mitchell and Corbett Say the Duval Club's Check Will Not Do.

Referee Kelly Must Have the $25,000 in Bills Ready to Hand Over at the Close of the Battle.

FIGHT MAY BE POSTPONED

Some Fears that Gov. Mitchell Has a Strong Card Yet to Play.

No One Need Be Surprised if the Two Principals Should Be Arrested and Put Under Heavy Bonds.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 21.-It has finally been decided that the Duval Athletic Club will be compelled to turn into cash the check referee John Kelly holds in trust for the winner of the big fight. Kelly to-day waiter on Jim Corbett at the later's training quarters at Mayport and had a long talk with the champion, Brady and Delaney. Kelly showed the check he had, and remarked that he had heard that Mitchell had entered a protest against fighting for a piece of paper, which by injunction could be tied up and made unavailable. Kelly stated that he did not care to take part in the transaction, which might terminate as Mitchell feared. He had no doubts as to the sincerety of the club in the matter, but he wanted both of the principals satisfied before he left for the scene of the contest. He then flatly put to Corbett the question: "Are you satisfied to fight for the purse in its present shape?"

The champion thought the matter over for a moment and then answered: "I am satisfied with anything that Mr. Mitchell is. If Mitchell wants the check converted into cash, as is his privilege, I see no reason why it should not be done. It is not an unreasonable demand, and it will tend to promote confidence in the contest. I shall back up Mitchell if he insists that the money be put up." RATHER HAVE MONEY. Mitchell does insist, and there is nothing for the club to do but comply with the demand, which the sporting men here agree is the only proper thing to do. It is argued that if the club is "on the square" there can be no objections interposed to the proposition, which carries with it nothing more than does the provisional indorsement on the back of the check, save that the money must be in the hands of the referee when he enters the ring, to be turned over to the winner at the conclusion of the battle. To-morrow night W. A. Brady, representing Corbett, and "Bat" Masterson, on behalf of Mitchell, will take referee Kelly before the club and make a forma demand on the officials for the cash. The arrangements or the fight are about completed, although the location is still being kept within the confines of the club, In order to bewilder the mind of the "hoodlum" element that is incidentally getting here very strong in straggling units, the emissaries have given out a dozen or more places where the fight might be pulled off. The guessing ones are at their wits' ends as to the location and many and ludierous are the methods employed in order to get tips. It has been decided to spirit the principals away with their parties some time Wednesday afternoon. Each will be furnished with a special train consisting of a Pullman buffet car and engine and pulled away toward a common center by circuitous routes. The most plausible theory is that the men will be taken to a point north of this city, near a neck of Georgia land, which puts quite a distance between two strips of Florida territory. The start will be made from this city in the morningbefore sunrise, it is intimated-in oder to give the fighters as much time as possible in which to effect a finish. The club has stopped selling tickets for $25 a piece, and, it is claimed, will sell no more until 1,000 spectators are assured. If the number fall short of this mark, all tickets previously purchased will be honored, but the late comers will be called upon for $50 each. Corbett has concluded to go into the ring seconded only by Americans. These wil be Jack Dempsey, Delaney, Donaldson and Brady. Al Smith will be timekeeper. There will be but one American in Mitch-ell's corner, "Bat" Masterson. The others will be Jim Hall and Steve O'Donnel, both of Australia, and Harry Darrin, of England. Billy Thompson, who is to hold the watch, is also from Australia, Jimmy Wakely, Teddy Foley, Ike Plant, Dave Blanchard, jr., and other Northern sports have arrived here.

An attachment will be served to-morrow on Corbett's personal property at Mayport for $1,000, alleged damages to property occupied by the party. The cotages used for training and sleeping quarters are the property of Judge Gibbons, of the Municipal Court, and Claus Meyer, of this city. They claim that Corbett occupied the prop-erty without the consent of the owners. THE GOVERNOR'S COUP. State's Attorney Hartridge has returned from Tallahassee after a consultation with Governor Mitchell. Hartridge said that the Governor had left the instructions of Sheriff Broward to Attorney-general Lamar and the State's attorney. The Attorney-general, together with Adjutant-general Houston, will arrive in Jacksonville to-morrow or next day. The three heads will then be brought together and as a result the sheriff will receive orders. Mr. Hartridge said that should the crowd board a train none of the railroad employes would be arrested, but he would say nothing as to whether the principals would be or not. Among several attorneys of this city the opinion that Governor Mitchell intends an important move on the morning of the 25th is gaining strength. They have an idea that instead of preventing the fight by means of the militia, the Governor will order the arrest of Corbett and Mitchell on the charge of arranging for a fight, which Attorney-general Lamar holds to come within the law prohibiting the arranging for a duel. The men were arrested several weeks ago on the same charge, but County Solicitor Christie, said to have been acting under instructions from the Governor, refused to introduce evidence, and the case, which was intended to test the law, fell through. The fact that the charge was not pressed does not, however, prevent the ar-rest of Corbett and Mitchell again on the same charge. Should they be arrested on the morning of the 25th it would necessitate a postponement of the battle for one day at least, and the men would undoubtedly be put under heavy bonds to keep the peace until the courts decided the legality of the matter. This would effectually put an end to the contest. In case it was decided that the fighters were within the limits of the law it is not probable that the contest would then take place, as the men would be out of condition and the crowd

A report came up from the Mitchell training quarters to-night to the effect that the English champion, during his exercise early in the evening, had sprained and wrenched his leg. The club this evening sent a commissioner to Anastasia island to notify Mitchell that a special car would be in readiness for him on Wednesday morning. According to the commissioner, when he returned, Mitchell was in a very unpleasant state of mind when he learned what was required of him, and declared he would not fight under the auspices of such a club, and that he had put up with too many of their bluffs already. The commissioner was then told of the injury which the English champion had sustained. How serious that may be is not learned. Al. Smith, however, came out to-night with a proposition in which he offered to bet $5,000 against $1,000, sprained ankle or not. Mitchell would get into the ring with Corbett Thursday. The Duval Club has issued an edict in response to the assertions which Mitchell is said to have made, in which the Englishman is served with a formal warning that the club would claim his forfeit of $5,000 if he did not appear at the point indicated in the original summons Wednes-
